United States Half Dollars.

- 259 1794; H. & R. No. 1; wide date; the lowest star pierces the lowest curl; reverse has 21 berries, 10 on left and 11 on right; good; rare.
 260 1794; H. & R. No. 2; closer date; curls of hair in different position; reverse. 19 berries, 9 on left and ten on right; poor; date just shows; exceedingly rare variety.
 261 1794; H. & R. No. 4; close date; the second star from the bottom on the left pierces the lowest curl; reverse, 18 berries, 9 on either side of wreath; good; very rare variety.
 262 1795; H. & R. No. 1; the lowest curl touches 2 points of the star; the next curl touches 1 point of second star; reverse 17 berries, 10 on left and 7 on right; very good.

- 510
263 1795; H. & R. No. 5; none of the curls touch the stars; reverse 17 berries, 9 on left and 8 on right; has only 2 berries on either side of wreath between ribbon bow and eagle's wings; hair and profile bold; nearly fine.
- 110
264 1795; H. & R. No. 9; the lowest star has 1 point piercing the lowest curl; reverse has 18 berries, 9 on either side; very good.
- 380
265 1795; H. & R. No. 10; very wide date, otherwise similar to H. & R. No. 5; rev., 17 berries, 9 on left and 8 on right; different from No. 5; this has a berry on lower part of wreath opposite to "N" in "United;" very good; rare variety.
- 110
266 1795; H. & R. No. 11; similar to No. 5, but different die; reverse has the same number of berries, but between the ribbon bow and eagle's wings this has 3 on the left and 4 on the right; fair; scarce.
- 100
267 1795; H. & R. No. 15; similar to, but different die from No. 9; reverse has same number of berries; 9 on either side; but placed differently; the "A" in "States" has an "E" under it; good; rare variety.
- 100
268 1795; H. & R. No. 24; small head; hair closer than in any of the preceding; reverse, 18 berries, 9 on either side, but has only 2 berries on either side between ribbon bow and eagle's wings; very fair; scarce variety.
- 268a 1797; even; well centred; lines of the hair all show distinctly and no blemishes, although it would not be termed fine for a common date it is unusually fine for this date, or in other words, it is not often offered in as fine condition; it is very seldom that collectors have the opportunity of purchasing so desirable a piece for their cabinets; extremely rare.
- 380
269 1801; very fair; very rare. A
- 110
270 1802; good; neatly plugged over the head; rare. A
- 2
271 1803; thick 3; reverse has only 12 arrows in eagle's claw; barely circulated; rare in this condition. 110
- 380
272 1803; thick 3; reverse has 13 arrows in eagle's claw; very good.
- 110
273 1803; thin, crooked 3; very good.
- 380
274 1805 over 1804; close date; reverse has 5 berries on olive branch; good; rare.
- 6
275 1805 over 1804; very wide date; reverse has 4 berries on olive branch; the 4 under the 5 shows bolder and more distinctly in this piece than in any other I have seen, and is probably the variety used in making the 1804 half dollar; fair; exceedingly rare variety.
- 276 1805; reverse has 5 berries and long stem to olive branch; eagle's beak nearly closed; very good.

 731 No. 11; many haired; strong impression; very good; nearly fine; hair but slightly rubbed; very scarce.
 732 No. 12; scarred head; unusually bold sharp impression, and is really uncirculated, although the obverse is covered with small pin holes of corrosion; very rare as fine as this.

- 60 733 No. 13; standless 4; good; one of the rarest; and difficult to obtain in any condition.
- 15 734 No. 14; abrupt hair; good; also very rare in any condition.
- 6 735 No. 15; separated date; bold sharp impression; barely circulated; beautiful light olive; very rare in this condition.
- 736 No. 16; separated date; bold strong impression; hair but little rubbed; very fine; brown color.
- 15 737 No. 17; the ornate; very good; nearly fine; brown.
- 50 738 The same, but struck on a large planchet; indented or bifurcated letters; variety not mentioned by Dr. Maris; good, but corroded.
- 2 739 No. 18; Venus Marina; strong bold impression; considerably corroded but a very good cent; rare.
- 4 740 No. 19; Venus Marina; very fair; rare.
- 741 No. 20; fallen 4; strong bold impression; barely circulated; light olive; very rare in this condition.
- 2 742 No. 21; short bust; strong impression; very fine; light brown; scarce.
- 743 No. 22; short bust; bold impression; very good; nearly fine.
- 744 The same; without the break in the die; word "Liberty" and part of legend on reverse weak; otherwise fine.
- 15 745 No. 23; Patagonian; strong impression; very good, but considerably scratched; rare.
- 2 746 No. 24; Patagonian; bold sharp impression; uncirculated, although evenly oxidized; very rare in this condition.
- 747 No. 25; the ornate; obv., like No. 17; rev., like No. 31; fair; extremely rare variety.
- 748 No. 26; amiable face; the slightest possible rub on the hair; otherwise uncirculated; bold sharp impression; light olive; very rare in this condition.
- 3 749 No. 27; amiable face; sharp strong impression; barely circulated; evenly oxidized; very rare in this condition.
- 2 750 No. 28; large planchet; very fine; light olive.
- 751 No. 28; the same; small planchet; very good; nearly fine.
- 752 No. 29; intreel field; unusually sharp; bold impression, exceeding in 2 letters in "Unite I" on reverse; uncirculated; beautiful brown; very rare in this condition.
- 753 No. 31; distinct 1; very fair; extremely rare.
- 754 No. 32; double hair; barely circulated; the break in the die very prominent.

- 756 The same; die not broken; very good; nearly fine.
- 757 No. 33; double hair; fair back; very much corroded; very rare.
- 3 758 No. 35; the plier; strong bold impression; barely circulated; fair.
- 759 The same; showing the crack in the die more distinctly; obv., fair; rev., poor.
- 2 760 No. 36; the plier; very fine; dark brown.
- 2 761 No. 37; the plier; sharp bold impression; uncirculated; beautiful light olive; very rare in this condition.

- 762 No. 38; Roman plica; very good; nearly fine; rare.
 763 No. 39; head of 1795; fine; brown; very rare.
 764 No. 40; many haired; obv., same as No. 11; rev., has 6 berries on the left part of wreath, instead of 7 as in No. 11; fine; very rare.
 765 No. 42; trephined head; very good; very rare.
 766 The same; die not broken behind the head; very good; nearly fine; very rare.

[The following are not in Dr. Maris' work.]

- 767 No. 45; obv., the same as No. 5; rev., differs from that of No. 5: the tops of wreath not so close: "E" and "S" in "States" nearer together; it is not the reverse of either 6, 7 or 8; very good; extremely rare.
 768 No. 46; obv., similar to No. 18, but date closer and fourth termination of hair from the bottom turns down, in No. 18 it turns up; rev., the same as No. 22; very fine; light olive; extremely rare.
 769 No. 47; the forlorn; obv., similar to No. 5, but has a prominence on the head under the space between "F" and "B" in "Liberty" not seen in No. 5, and the expression of the face more forlorn; rev., the same as No. 5; fine; extremely rare.
 770 No. 51; the plice; obv., same as No. 36; rev., the same as No. 31; very fine; extremely rare.
 771 The stars; this is the celebrated star variety: obv., the same as No. 5; rev., has a circle of 87 stars at the points of the milling; hair a little rubbed; smooth surface; very fine; brown; this is the finest cent known of this variety, and a great deal finer than any that have been offered as the finest; In a late number of the "Numisma" published by Mr. Frossard it was stated that this planchet was the same as the Pattern Martha Washington Cent; this is incorrect, for although the Martha Washington Cent has a similar circle of stars; it is 1-16 of an inch wider than that on this cent.
 772 No. 53; the lowest curl of hair extends downward to the milling; good; cleaned; extremely rare.
